9.3 Subject always to Clause 9.5, the total aggregate liability under this Agreement of either Party for each event or Default or series of related events of Default shall be limited to damages which shall not exceed the total Charges payable under this Agreement provided always that in any period of twelve (12) consecutive months the maximum liability of each Party to the other for Defaults governed by this Clause 9.3 shall not exceed two hundred and fifty thousand (250 000) GBP.

The Party acknowledging the event shall, without delay, notify the other Party about its impossibility to perform its service and provide justification thereof. However, once the cause for suspension of reciprocal obligations has disappeared, the Parties shall make their best endeavors in order to continue normal performance of their contractual obligations as quickly as possible. As such, the impeded Party shall notify the other in regard to restarting performance of its obligation via certified letter with return receipt.

It is expressly agreed that the Parties may terminate this Agreement, if the event, defined as a hypothesis for suspending obligations, continues for a period of more than one (1) month. Any use, even partial, of the Deliverables and/or Documentation after the contractual end date or at the effective termination date will constitute an infringement of FuturMaster's rights, likely to cause civil and/or criminal legal action.

12.4 Forthwith upon completion of the activities set out in Clause 12.2 and Clause 12.3 above, the Client shall certify in writing to FuturMaster that it has fully complied with the requirements of Clause 12.2 and Clause 12.3.

12.5 The termination of this Agreement shall not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which shall have accrued or shall thereafter accrue to either Party.

12.6 The provisions of Clauses 1, 4, 7, 8, 9, 12, 13, 16, 17, 18.1, and 18.7 shall survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

If, due to applicable law or regulation, such rights may not be transferred, the Client shall take all necessary measures to ensure that such person waives its rights therein or if such waiver is not legal, that such person grants exclusively and irrevocably, such rights to FuturMaster or third party publishers, for free and for an unlimited term on a worldwide basis in order to use, market and modify the elements without having to identify the author or obtain its prior consent. This warranty and indemnity is hereby granted by FuturMaster provided that:

- FuturMaster be promptly notified of any claims or legal action brought by any third-party claiming infringement of its rights by the Deliverables (a "Third Party"), provided, however, that any delay in notifying FuturMaster of the Third Party claim shall not relieve FuturMaster of its obligations hereunder except to the extent FuturMaster is actually prejudiced by such delay;
- FuturMaster be able to mount its defense of the Client at its sole discretion, against any threatened action, complaint, or claim; and
- The Client provide assistance (at FuturMaster's sole cost and expense) and allow FuturMaster to take sole control of any negotiations with the Third Party in order to execute a settlement; provided, however, that FuturMaster shall not enter into any settlement on behalf of Client which does not contain an unconditional general release in favor of Client and/or which imposes any monetary or non-monetary obligation on Client or contains any admission of wrongdoing on the part of Client.

The Client shall not respond alone to any claim, complaint or legal action and/or defend itself alone in any judicial action or litigation brought against it by a Third Party or discuss or execute any agreement or settlement with a Third Party and undertakes, if it is named as a defendant, to promptly notify FuturMaster and collaborate with FuturMaster in accordance with this Clause.

In the event of a settlement for which an amount is agreed upon by FuturMaster and the Third Party, FuturMaster shall pay the entirety of the amounts to be paid by the Client to the Third Party.

This warranty against dispossession granted by FuturMaster shall not apply to a Deliverable:

- That was modified, after it has been delivered by FuturMaster and by a third-party service provider;
- That is used in conjunction with third party software, materials, or operating systems other than those as set out at the Standard SaaS Services Agreement, if the infringement pertains to such combined use;
- That are still being used by the Client in spite of a settlement agreement having been executed or after a definitive legal judgment has been rendered or if the Client fails to implement the modifications suggested by FuturMaster which would lead such to no longer being considered as infringing;
